

Angela Pool-Funai

Director of the Master of Public Administration Program at Southern Utah University

Cedar City, UT, US

Specializing in public administration, virtual currency, tax policy and philanthropy

Description

Dr. Angela Pool-Funai is director of the Master of Public Administration program at Southern Utah University and an assistant professor of political science and public administration.

Her research interests include experiential learning, virtual currency, tax policy, and philanthropy. She serves on the board of the Michael O. Leavitt Center for Politics and Public Service, and is a member of American Society for Public Administration, American Political Science Association, and National Society for Experiential Education.

Prior to joining the SUU, Dr. Pool-Funai worked with grants and research administration in the nonprofit sector and in higher education. She earned a bachelor's degree in journalism and economics at Stephen F. Austin State University, a master's degree in public policy and administration at Baylor University, and a Ph.D. in public administration at Valdosta State University.

Industry Expertise

Public Policy, Government Administration, Education/Learning, Fund-Raising, Computer Gaming, Non-Profit/Charitable

Topics

Board Development, Donor Relations, Experiential Learning in Higher Education, Fund-Raising for Higher Education, Fund-Raising for Non Profit, Grant Writing, Grant Writing for Higher Education, Grant Writing for Non Profit, Public Administration, State & Local Government, Tax Policy, Virtual Currency, Virtual Economies

Affiliations

American Society for Public Administration, American Political Science Association, National Society for Experiential Education

Education

Stephen F. Austin State University

B.A. Journalism and Economics

Baylor University

M.A. Public Policy and Administration

Valdosta State University in Georgia
Ph.D. Public Administration

Accomplishments

Professor of the Year Finalist
2016, 2017

SUU Influencer Award
2016

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.