

Roy Black

Professor in the Practice of Finance at Emory University, Goizueta Business School

Atlanta, GA, US

Biography

Roy T. Black, who has taught part-time at Goizueta since 1999, joined the Goizueta faculty full-time in Summer 2007 to spearhead the Real Estate program. During his tenure at Goizueta, Black has seen his typical class size of 30 students and his load of one or two courses a year swell to the establishment of a program. He has a J.D. from Woodrow Wilson College of Law, an M.S. in Real Estate from Georgia State University, and a Ph.D. in Business Administration from the University of Georgia. Prior to entering academia, he spent 15 years as a real estate attorney.

Industry Expertise

Financial Services, Real Estate Services, Education/Learning, Research

Areas of Expertise

Real Estate Attorney, Business Administration

Affiliations

Nordic Journal of Surveying and Real Estate Research : Editorial Advisory Board, American Real Estate Society : Associate Executive Director

Education

University of Georgia

PhD Business Administration

Georgia State

Master's Real Estate

Woodrow Wilson College of Law

JD Law

Cornell University

BA English

Accomplishments

Homer Hoyt Advanced Studies Institute Manuscript Prize (2002)

Professor Black was co-recipient of the Homer Hoyt Advanced Studies Institute Manuscript Prize for the best paper published in Journal of Real Estate Research in 2002, "Time, Place, Space, Technology and Corporate Real Estate Strategy."

Outstanding Faculty Award (1997)

Professor Black was presented the Outstanding Faculty Award by the Georgia State University Real Estate Alumni Group, January 22, 1997.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.