Creative / Art Director of Luxe Design NYC & DC

Biography

I am one of the few, (formally art-school trained) designers / creative directors probably in the dc metro area, and I am also someone that can pull off an equal "top hat" in knowledge when it comes to other in-demand roles too. I am like a walking it department, marketing expert (past using lots of fancy buzzwords), I can fix your downed server, I even have close to 8,000 twitter followers. I've done nationally syndicated design and print work, and I am an expert CMS designer. I'm even now MSDN / Microsoft Partnered.
