

Brian Treanor

Professor of Philosophy, Charles S. Casassa Chair, and Director of the Academy of Catholic Thought and Imagination at Loyola Marymount University

Los Angeles, CA, US

Bellarmino College of Liberal Arts

Biography

Brian Treanor is Charles S. Casassa Chair and Professor of Philosophy at Loyola Marymount University. A hermeneutic philosopher, his interdisciplinary teaching and scholarship explore a wide variety of areas, with particular emphasis on environmental philosophy, broadly construed.

He also serves as the Director of the Academy for Catholic Thought and Imagination, an interdisciplinary research institute that seeks to encourage intellectual dialogue at LMU, and to support faculty scholarship on a wide range of topics in the humanities, social sciences, arts, and sciences.

Areas of Expertise

Environmental Ethics, Environmental Philosophy, Hermeneutics, 20th Century Continental Philosophy, Ethics, Virtue Ethics, Philosophy of Religion, Philosophy and Literature

Affiliations

Society for Phenomenology and Existential Philosophy, Pacific Association for the Continental Tradition, International Association for Environmental Philosophy, International Association for Environmental Ethics, International Network for Philosophy of Religion, Society for Continental Philosophy and Theology, Comparative and Continental Philosophy Circle, American Philosophical Association

Education

Boston College

Ph.D. Philosophy

California State University, Long Beach

M.A. Philosophy

University of California, Los Angeles

B.A. Political Science

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.