

Bryan Koenig

Assistant Professor of Psychology at Southern Utah University

Cedar City, UT, US

Specializing in social and evolutionary psychology

Biography

Dr. Bryan Koenig is an assistant professor in the Psychology Department at Southern Utah University. Dr. Koenig is passionate about engaged learning and enjoys teaching about statistics, research methods, and evolutionary psychology. Specializing in social and evolutionary psychology especially as related to morality and social relationships.

Dr. Koenig has 23 peer-reviewed publications, nine other scholarly publications and has presented at many conferences. Before coming to SUU, Dr. Koenig taught for five years at Lindenwood University and Washington University in St. Louis. Before that, he worked for three years as a research scientist in the Institute of High Performance Computing in Singapore.

Dr. Koenig earned a Ph.D. in social psychology with a minor in statistics from New Mexico State University and an M.A. in general/experimental psychology from the College of William and Mary.

Industry Expertise

Research, Education/Learning, Writing and Editing

Areas of Expertise

Emotion, Evolutionary Psychology, Evolutionary Psychology: Social Relationships, Human Behavior and Evolution, Moral Psychology, Research Methods, Social Neuroscience, Social Psychology, Statistics

Affiliations

Association for Psychological Science, Cognitive Science Society, Human Behavior and Evolution Society, International Society for Research on Emotion, Society for Personality and Social Psychology, Society for Social Neuroscience

Education

New Mexico State University

Ph.D. Social Psychology

College of William and Mary

M.A General / Experimental Psychology

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.