

Catherine Morris

Adjunct Professor, Faculty of Law and Faculty of Human & Social Development at University of Victoria
Victoria, BC, CA

Catherine Morris is involved in education, research and advocacy on international human rights, peacebuilding and conflict resolution.

Biography

Catherine Morris has been working in the field of international human rights for over a decade, and in the field of peace and conflict studies and practice since 1983, including founding, leadership, policy, research and teaching in academic institutions and civil society organizations in Canada. She is an Adjunct Professor, Faculty of Law and Faculty of Human & Social Development at the University of Victoria. Her teaching, research and advocacy has led her to work in nations around the world, including Thailand, Cambodia, Honduras, Austria, Myanmar, Hong Kong, Rwanda, Bolivia, and Bangladesh.

Industry Expertise

International Affairs, Alternative Dispute Resolution, Legal Services, Non-Profit/Charitable, Research, Education/Learning

Areas of Expertise

International Human Rights, Peace and Conflict, Cambodia, Thailand, Mediation, Dispute Resolution, Conflict Transformation, Religion conflict and peacemaking, Reconciliation , Conflict Resolution, Policy Analysis, Research, Higher Education

Affiliations

Adjunct Professor Faculty of Law University of Victoria, UN Liaison, Lawyers' Rights Watch Canada, Director Peacemakers Trust

Event Appearances

Canada's International Human Rights Obligations and Bill C-51
Panel presentation sponsored by the Canadian International Council

The Impact of Mediation on the Culture of Disputing in Canada
Event sponsored by the ADR section of the BC Branch of the Canadian Bar Association

International Human Rights and Access to Justice: International Right to Legal Aid
Access to Justice: Community Conference

Corporate Land-Grabbing & Fabricated Charges in Cambodia: What Can Canadian Lawyers Do?
Presentation to the Canadian Bar Association International Assistance Section

Education

University of British Columbia
LL.M. Law

University of Alberta
J.D. Law

Accomplishments

Victoria Bar Association Volunteer Award

Catherine Morris received the Victoria Bar Association Volunteer Award in 2015 for her work on the rule of law through promotion of international human rights.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.