Description

C.C. Chapman has been called everything from a new media maven, a podcasting pioneer and even a grounded futurist. He prefers to call himself a passionate member of the new media playground who enjoys helping build the community and connecting everyone in it.

As an entrepreneur and consultant, C.C. understands the entrepreneurial spirit, and the “in the trenches” economic and organizational challenges companies face every day. C.C. Chapman helps people and brands convert passive consumers into passionate, invested advocates.

C.C. is the co-author (with Ann Handley) of Content Rules, a book that showcases the value of “organizations as publishers.” Content Rules clearly explains how companies can create remarkable blogs, podcasts, webinars, ebooks, and more “content that converts online audiences into customer evangelists.

As a highly sought after consultant, C.C. has built meaningful relationships between a Who’s Who of A-list companies and their markets. He sports the pro cred to be a talker (working closely with such clients as American Eagle Outfitters, Coca-Cola, HBO and Warner Bros.), and the passion and gumption to be a doer (creating content for the emerging Online Dad market, marketing professionals, music fans and more).

You’d be hard-pressed to find a more multi-faceted or enthusiastic creative/strategic partner in the marketing and content creation fields. This greatly hails from C.C.’s unstoppable combination of marketing experience and savvy, and incalculably valuable “on the ground” knowledge and insight as an influential content creator himself. The result is a best-of-both-worlds mashup of marketing expertise.

C.C. has years of public speaking experience, nearly all of it presented to companies, marketers and content creators. Rather than having a few canned presentations, C.C. prefers to tailor his speeches to be unique and up to date every time he takes the stage. He can speak about a variety of topics related to social media, entrepreneurship, online marketing and parenting.

Based in metro-west Boston and a graduate of Bentley University, C.C. is extremely active in the social media community and is considered an influencer and connector by most. His comments and thoughts have appeared in The Wall Street Journal, The Boston Globe and on Fox Television. Most recently he has launched the parenting focused website Digital Dads, and currently serves on the Board of Directors for both Wediko and Know My World.

Transforming Your Small Business into a Content Powerhouse

The majority of small businesses complain about a lack of resources, time and talent to produce the type of multi-channel content that will make a real impact in the business. Simply put, this is not true. In this session, C.C. Chapman will show you simple ways to set up your content marketing program that will extend the life of your stories, and take your business to the next level.

The Power of Visual Storytelling

A story can be told in a million different ways and constantly improving technology makes it even more fun for anyone to tell their story in their own unique way. Brands and individuals equally need to embrace that they must tell their story to the world. Through the use of photos, video, words and audio your story can be shared in unlimited ways. In this workshop, C.C. will explain how organizations of all sizes, with budgets large and small, have presented their visual story.

Content Marketing – Forget What You Think You Know and Let's Make Content That Rocks!

This workshop will discuss the importance of having an integrated content strategy for online marketing success in today's highly competitive world. With a variety of best practice guidelines, real world case studies and practical experience, you'll learn how you can help clients in any industry develop a much more focused and strategic use of content in their marketing campaigns. The better you can become at discovering and telling your client's stories, the happier your clients will be.

The Soul of Your Brand

If you're going to put content to work for your business, you need that's more than pixels and text and bytes. Your content should truly reflects who you are, content that's deeply rooted in your brand. You need content with soul. In this workshop, C.C. will explore why certain content sets companies apart, then give you ideas on how you can create content that is truly the soul of your brand.

Content Rules!: How to Create Content People Actually Care About

Produce great stuff, and your customers will come to you. Produce great stuff, and your customers will share your story for you. This workshop will give you the tools you need to create killer content with confidence. I will show you a failproof process to create remarkable content: blogs, podcasts, webinars, ebooks, and other web content that will lure would-be customers to you. Youâ€™ll learn the fundamentals of how to create bold stories, videos, and blog posts through fun, hands-on exercises.

Testimonials

Chris Brogan

C.C. Chapman is the perfect blend of knowledgeable and understandable. His speeches are dynamic, energetic, and packed with information to consider for the future. When C.C. spoke at the Inbound Marketing Summit, he drew great applause, and a crowd of people anxious to follow up on his ideas. Heâ€™s a professional that enhances any conference that needs to understand the future in down-to-earth terms.

Candace Alcorn

C.C. is a dynamic, informative and inspirational speaker. Students and instructors alike responded to his passion and energy, and all were impressed by his knowledge and experience. Every educational institution should give their students the opportunity to be inspired by C.C.

Leslie Poston

CC brings a warmth and sense of place to each of his speaking engagements. As one of New Hampshireâ€™s native sons, I was honored to have him as one of the featured speakers at Social Media Breakfast NH in the Upper Valley. Not one to make a cookie cutter presentation, he created an intimate atmosphere of fun and learning for the attendees that kept the buzz going long after he was done. If you havenâ€™t had a chance to hear CC Chapman speak, you need to put it on your conference Bucket List.
