

Charles Eduardos, C.Ht.

Executive/Life Transformation Coach - Motivational/Inspirational Speaker at Victorious Living System
Olmsted Falls, OH, OH, US

Executive/Life Transformation Coach, Motivational/Inspirational Speaker

Description

I am a Certified Hypnotherapist and NLP Practitioner, Registered Corporate Coach (RCC) through the Worldwide Association of Business Coaches (WABC), Chaplain for Rocky River Police Department, member of the Cleveland Clinic PAC Team for Clinical Pastoral Education and Pastor in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, I am dedicated to assisting you in your quest for a transformed life. I believe that you can have, you can achieve and you can be more than you ever imagined. I want to partner with you and help you take charge of your thinking and renew your Mind.

Who (or what) controls your thoughts and feelings? To what extent do you feel in charge of your thinking, your emotions? Would you like to feel more in charge? You can experience a greater sense of satisfaction and peace of mind; of being productive, and creative as you learn to access and activate your inner wisdom? This is what the Victorious Living System is all about. Discovering and using your personal power.

What is your purpose, your vision, your mission? What are the barriers that you perceive? The things that get in the way of your Victorious Life?

Why not give yourself a fresh start. Learn how your mind operates, and start operating your mind. Start creating the life of your dreams.

Here's what one of my international clients has to say:

"Charles is a superlative coach. His deep listening skills coupled with an ability to often ask the perfect question at the perfect time makes him an invaluable sounding board, guide and partner in success!" - Craig Kennedy - Executive Coach

Explore your possibilities, you owe it to yourself.

Be transformed by renewing your mind! Let Charles show you how your mind operates

Mastering Stress

The American Institute of Stress says, "There are numerous emotional and physical disorders that have been linked to stress including depression, anxiety, heart attacks, stroke, hypertension"

Charles will help you understand how you go about creating stress and then give you some powerful techniques that can,

- * Reduce your STRESS level
- * Improves your immune system function
- * Enhance memory and learning
- * Boost your coping skills

Be transformed by renewing your mind!

The Key To Conscious Transformation

Charles will systematically raise your awareness of how your mind works and empower you to more effectively take charge of your life. You will learn and get the tools you need to more successfully navigate to your desired outcomes in every area of your life. You will begin to better understand and even see how you tend to sabotage your own desires and plans.

Creating Your Brave New World â€“ Living in Purpose and Passion

Discover how we go about creating meaning and purpose in our lives. Is my mental framework really mine or did I inherit it from someone else?

Really? I am the one that's creating my experience of life? Yes! Want to discover how you do it? As you begin to understand the mechanisms, you are empowered to use it consciously and intentionally to create an inner shift in your awareness that produces the vision of your brave new world.

Testimonials

Angie Eichelberger

Charles is phenomenal and possesses the knowledge, charisma and versatility to skillfully engage a variety of audiences. During one of our recent Saturday Academy sessions, Charles challenged the students through dialogue and thought-provoking exercises to transform their thinking in order to achieve a victorious life. He spoke of the value and importance of being authentic, thinking positively, and believing in one's own ability to succeed and live up to their fullest potential. The students have expressed that they wish he could be present with them at every session! He is definitely instrumental in helping others make their dreams come true!

Amanda Ritchie

We were fortunate to have Charles speak yesterday on "Victorious Living". He was an EXCELLENT speaker and related well to our audience. His lecture was in deed motivational, as well as engaging. If you have a future marketing Luncheon or Dinner, he would be perfect. I would highly recommend his lecture.

Ted Beltavski

"Dynamic, motivational and realistic." That's the best way I can describe the energy Charles brought to our Leadership Warner class. I was thoroughly impressed by his knowledge and look forward to working with him again."

Rev. Gary R. Henderson

You have done a tremendous job in the presentation of "Living the Love Commandment." You were animated and kept the participants engaged and involved. I particularly appreciated the way in which the scriptures were integrated in the presentation. There was candor and humor and enough challenge to allow everyone opportunity to grow. You were also unafraid to be personal and share something of your own faith journey as a way of further connection with the participants.

It was refreshing to hear the report by one person as they admitted they had come with real skepticism but were pleasantly surprised and learned quite a bit. There was universal agreement that the day was well spent.

Susan Douglass

In this presentation, you will learn how closely your experiences & past memories shape our beliefs, values and opinion. It affects how you view yourself & other people that interact in your life. I was empowered with knowledge about how my mind, physical body & spiritual well being are tied together. Having this knowledge allows me to be more in control & aware of what is really true in every aspect of my life. With this awareness, my perception of events, whether current or in the past, are framed totally different. WE create our own reality. We give meaning to events, positive or negative. This was a real eye open to unlock your hidden potential.
