

Charli Carpenter

Professor of Political Science and Director of Human Security Lab at University of Massachusetts Amherst

Amherst, MA, US

Charli Carpenter's teaching and research interests include the protection of civilians, laws of war and humanitarian affairs.

Biography

Charli Carpenter's teaching and research interests include the politics of war law, transnational advocacy networks, protection of civilians, humanitarian disarmament and the role of popular culture in global human security policy. She has a particular interest in the gap between intentions and outcomes among advocates of human security. Since the Russian invasion of Ukraine in 2022, Carpenter has written and commented extensively on the travel ban imposed on civilian men by the Ukrainian government.

Expertise

International Relations, World Politics, Children Born of War, Global Issue Networks, Laws of War

Education

University of Oregon
Ph.D. Political Science

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.