

Chris Carder

Managing Partner at Kinetic Café

Toronto, ON, CA

For Chris sky is the limit...as a result I believed that I could accomplish anything I put my mind to. "

Biography

Managing Partner with Kinetic Café, his newly launched Innovation Agency -- specializing in strategic foresight, experience design and consumer engagement, Chris built the largest email marketing firm in Canada and sold it to Transcontinental Inc. in 2008.

ThinData Inc. was originally the largest Email Service Provider (ESP) in Canada -- having grown the firm from a two-person operation to 110 + staff in Toronto and Montreal and recognized as Canadian New Media Awards Employer and Volunteer of the Year.

Now as a Coach and Investor to Digital Entrepreneurs and Start-ups, Chris speaks regularly to audiences of start-ups, emerging entrepreneurs and government and private organizations involved with small businesses and digital start-ups.

Audiences who hear the rags to riches story of ThinData will score his session as one of the top experiences of your conference or event. Many will say they had goosebumps during key moments of the story and all will find new inspiration and drive in their careers, businesses and life visions after hearing the stories that have made Chris one of the Canadian digital communities favourite storytellers.
