Testimonials

Joe Vaughn

Christina is a very strong marketing and communications professional. She worked on numerous communication projects for me at Advance Auto Parts. She was originally brought in on a contract basis and performed so well she was quickly elevated to a full time management position.â€•

Olalah Njenga

“Christina is a talented marketing professional whom I’ve had the pleasure of collaborating with for a strategic project requiring a detailed approach. Her thoroughness and ability to anticipate next strategic steps is impressive. She has a sharp mind, keen insight and the ability to make a plan flexible enough to bend with the shifts of an industry. Christina is a marketing marvel and I am proud to share the marketing space with such a talented professional.”

Diane Kuehn

“As part of our team, Christina consistently demonstrated that she is a hard worker and is extremely goal-oriented. Her work ethic is admirable as is her focus and desire to deliver beyond expectations.”

Jill Loope

Christina is a true marketing and public relations professional. She has outstanding writing and design skills and I have been very pleased with the high quality results. Her natural ability to assess various situations and bring together an effective implementation strategy has been a tremendous asset for her clients.”

Heather D. Browning

“Christina Motley and her teams are creative geniuses, branding an image for the Town of Blacksburg that is precisely in line with our Town Council’s strategic goals. Christina provides turn-key solutions “ from conception to final product, making the process very easy “ and hold customer satisfaction in highest regard.”

Margaret Barchine, APR, RYT

“Christina Motley is a self-motivated individual with a breadth of experience in marketing and communications. She is conscientious, pays attention to detail and is a creative problem solver. She is an asset to any company that is looking to succeed.”

Tom Byrnes

“Christina is an excellent speaker and customizes her presentations very well to the specific audience. She has great marketing experience, especially in the area of social media.”

Karen Stone

“Christina is a gifted marketer and speaker. I had the pleasure of hearing Christina speak at a recent American Marketing Association event and was immediately inspired by the significant contributions she is making on behalf of the Triangle Chapter. Her enthusiasm and energy are contagious. If you have the opportunity to work with Christina as a volunteer or to engage her as a speaker, jump at the chance. You’ll be glad you did!”

Elaine Loyack

“Christina’s expertise and talents reach beyond social media. She developed a holistic marketing strategy. She proved a timely and responsive communicator and handed us her deliverables ahead of schedule. Her high level of fluency in her subject matter was translated into support documents she created for us to use that broadened our own understanding. Lastly, Christina was fun to work with and patient as we moved along our learning curve. The breadth of her professional relationships is yet another testament to her likable personality and integrity.”

Sean Peters

“Her attention to detail, leadership responsibilities, abilities to work with a team and listen to client needs allow her to find creative solutions and do an exceptional job. Christina not only gets the job done, but always keeps the client in mind and never forgets the big picture of the business’s™ goals and objectives.”

Sue Polinsky

“Christina has a lot of energy and solid goals for social media marketing. She also has good knowledge of marketing and applies that to nonprofit organizations. She enjoys new projects and tackles them wholeheartedly to make them work for the business needs.”

Lynn Nystrom

“Christina has helped to brand and develop marketing and communications programs for several departments at Virginia Tech. She builds long-term relationships with her clients and develops strategies that meet both short- and long-term needs. I highly recommend Christina to lead your marketing and communication needs.”

Ronnie Duncan

"Christina drives business results and online community engagement by identifying strategic topics and writing targeted, online SEO content. Her first two blogs increased our readership and website traffic by more than 400%. She also did a great job while simultaneously tweeting two brands from two voices, pulling it off seamlessly. If that wasn't enough, she was able to leverage the content to create another four blogs. Christina has a strong work ethic, a capacity for powerful branding, and delivers valuable content, fast."
