

Colleen R. Logan, PhD, LPC-S

Program Director - MA Clinical Mental Health Counseling - School of Leadership Studies at Fielding Graduate University

Dallas, TX, US

Counselor, Professor, Higher Education Leader, Author: Committed to social justice, advocacy and leadership.

Dr. Colleen Logan serves as program director for the M. A. Clinical Mental Health Counseling program at Fielding Graduate University. Previously, she held academic and administrative positions at Walden University, Argosy University, and the University of Houston-Victoria, serving in roles as program director for the M.S. in Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling; Addictions Counseling programs; and the Ph.D. Counselor Education and Supervision programs; as well as vice president of academic affairs and associate dean, School of Psychology and Behavioral Sciences, respectively.

In addition, Dr. Logan maintains a small counseling private practice specializing in affirmative and enrichment counseling.

In addition to acting in such academic and administrative positions, Dr. Logan also served as the president of the American Counseling Association (ACA), 2008–2009, and president of the Texas Association for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Issues in Counseling, a division of the Texas Counseling Association, 2009–2010. She has been recently elected as Director Elect representing TALGBTIC on the Texas Counseling Association's board of directors. In 2017, she received a special commendation from the current ACA president for her contributions to the field of counseling and affirmative therapy with lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender individuals and their significant others.

Dr. Logan has presented locally, nationally, and internationally, on issues related to counseling gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender clients. In addition, she has authored or co-authored a number of articles and chapters, as well as a book, regarding how to work effectively with gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender clients and their significant others.
