

Corinne Kyriacou

Associate Professor of Health Professions at Hofstra University

Hempstead, NY, US

Dr. Kyriacou studies public health challenges for the chronically ill. She was the Master of Public Health Program's founding director.

---

Biography

Dr. Kyriacou is an Associate Professor in the Department of Health Professions. She was the founding director of Hofstra's Master of Public Health Program (2012-2016) and director of the Master of Science in Community Health program (2010-2016). Dr. Kyriacou currently teaches courses in health care policy at both the graduate and undergraduate level, as well as graduate courses in public health leadership (MPH internship seminar) and research project design and implementation (MPH culminating experience).

Her current research focuses on challenges and opportunities for integrating medical and social services for the chronically ill. Dr. Kyriacou has published articles on hospital to nursing home transitions; consumer-directed care; integrated care for the elderly; managed home care; and, the importance of experiential training for health professionals. She co-authored a book that explores the social, health, environmental and fiscal implications of innovative, alternative economies, "Equal Time, Equal Value: Community Currencies and Time Banking in the US" (Ashgate, 2012).

Dr. Kyriacou was named 2013 Teacher of the Year for the School of Health Professions and Human Services, an award determined by graduating students' rankings over a three to five-year period. She received a doctorate in Social Policy and Health Services Research from the Heller School at Brandeis University where she was an Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality Fellow, and she holds a Master of Public Health degree from New York Medical College. Prior to joining the Hofstra faculty in 2004, Dr. Kyriacou spent five years as Director of Research at Metropolitan Jewish Health System, a continuum of care provider of services for the elderly and chronically ill based in Brooklyn, NY.

---

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning, Health and Wellness

---

Areas of Expertise

Health Care System Organization, Financing, Delivery and Reform, Health and Aging Policy, Public Health Leadership, Planning, Implementation and Evaluation of Community Health Programs, Integrated Care, Naturally Occurring Retirement Communities, Chronic Illness, Aging with Developmental Disabilities, Affordable Care Act

---

Education

Brandeis University

Ph.D.

NY Medical College
M.P.H.

SUNY University Central Albany
B.A.

---

Accomplishments

Teacher of the Year

Awarded by Hofstra's School of Health Professions and Human Services

---

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.