

Craig M. Wheeland, PhD

Vice Provost for Academics; Professor of Public Administration at Villanova University

Villanova , PA, US

Craig M. Wheeland , PhD, is an expert in urban politics, local government, and public administration.

Biography

A noted scholar in the area of public administration, Wheeland has published numerous articles in some of the leading journals in the field. He has also published two books and contributed to various others on the topics of local government and urban politics. His research on city management has received external funding from organizations such as the American Political Science Association. Wheeland was named Vice Provost for Academics in January 2016. As Vice Provost for Academics, he works closely with the Provost in the oversight of the University's academic enterprise. He oversees the academic affairs of the University, helping foster the development, promotion and support of faculty teaching and research, as well as student learning. Wheeland previously served as Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs at the University.

Areas of Expertise

Public Administration, Urban Politics, Local Government, Higher Education, Faculty Affairs, Academic Integrity

Education

The Pennsylvania State University

PhD Political Science

University of South Carolina

MPA Public Administration

University of South Carolina Aiken

BA History

Select Accomplishments

Alpha Sigma Lambda, Honorary Induction,

National Honor Society for Adult Learners in Continuing Higher Education, May 11, 2007.

Founder's Award, Graduate Alumni Society of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

Presented in "recognition of excellence in your profession and commitment to Villanova University."

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.