Toronto, ON, CA

I'm a seasoned software developer with over 8 years of professional experience working in both online media and software

Biography

I have been working in software development for 8+ years. I have a college diploma from Sheridan College, where I majored in Computer Science Technology. From there I transferred to Brock University in St. Catharines under an articulation agreement. I graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree, majoring in Computer Science.

I have a passion for UI development and building great software!
