

David Setran, Ph.D.

Price-LeBar Chair of Christian Formation & Ministry at Wheaton College

Wheaton, IL, US

Dr. David Setran's research interests include young adult spiritual formation and the history and philosophy of Christian education.

Biography

Dr. David Setran is the author of The College “Y:” Student Religion in the Era of Secularization, and co-author with Chris Kiesling of Spiritual Formation in Emerging Adulthood: A Practical Theology for College and Young Adult Ministry. His areas of research interest include college student development and formation, the history of Christian education, philosophy of Christian education, and the history of Christian parenting in the United States. He earned a Ph.D. in History of Education from Indiana University in 2000.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning, Research, Religious Institutions, Training and Development

Areas of Expertise and Research Interests

History of Christian Education, Philosophy of Christian Education, College Student Development, Character Formation, History of Educational Thought, Ministry Philosophy, Emerging Adults, College Students, Young Adults, Young Adult Ministry, Vocational Discernment, Calling and Career, Launching Young Adults, Church and Young Adults, Mentoring, History of Christian Parenting

Professional Affiliations

Society of Professors in Christian Education (S.P.C.E.) : Member, History of Education Society : Member, Society for the Study of Emerging Adults : Member

Education

Indiana University, Bloomington

Ph.D. History of Education

Wheaton College

M.A. Educational Ministries

Wheaton College

B.Sc. Biology

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.