Building More Effective Organizations

Description

I am the Founder and Principal of IntegrityWise Consulting, LLC[®] and we help companies effectively prepare for new markets with an emphasis on the right leadership, operations and policies.

If your organization is considering new markets, I welcome the opportunity to speak with you about the shifts your organization needs to make in order to chart your course for success.

I have over 20 years of professional experience including roles in the Big 4 providing consulting and advisory services to government and Fortune 500 companies. Through my company, I aim to help organizations make real culture shifts and navigate the people and process challenges that arise when doing business.

I have a Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial & Systems Engineering from The Ohio State University and a Juris Doctor degree from George Mason University School of Law.
