I challenge, cheer and champion women to courageously surrender to their happiest future

Description

Deanne Tindale has had business success all her working life - as an executive in the one of the world's largest multinationals and as the owner of one of Australasia's most successful recruitment boutiques. But what came easily in business did not come so easily in her private life.

Today Deanne is incredibly happy having been married for 21 years. It wasn't always the case. 8 years of unsuccessfully trying to have a family through IVF, 23 embryos implanted and lost, 3 miscarriages and then on top of all that pain, the business her husband was part-owner in failed, and he went bankrupt. In the hurt and anger of that time, Deanne's husband had an affair and the woman he was with fell pregnant. She terminated the pregnancy, Deanne's husband came home but it was such a tough, hard place to be together that their marriage deteriorated again. Deanne had an affair and unbelievably, she fell pregnant then lost her baby.

Through years of study in Gestalt therapy, Positive Psychology and Conscious Partnering things started to improve but it wasn't until a moment of Courageous Surrender that everything changed. Today Deanne and her husband are so in love, so fulfilled and so excited about their lives that people everywhere ask how they do it.

Having realized the power of Courageous Surrender and the framework that follows it, Deanne shares the secret with women all over the world.

Deanne is happy to travel to any national or international location where women want to be inspired to courageously surrender to their happiest future.
