

Elise King, MID, M.A.

Assistant Professor in Family and Consumer Sciences | Interior Design at Baylor University
Waco, TX, US

Elise King, MID, M.A., is an Assistant Professor in Interior Design at Baylor University.

Biography

Elise King is an Assistant Professor in Interior Design at Baylor University. As an interior designer and design historian she believes that examining critically the designers and built environments of the past can enhance our understanding of contemporary life and design practice. Her research focuses on twentieth-century design innovators and exploring the intersection between theory and practice.

Industry Expertise

Home Furnishing, Education/Learning, Architecture and Planning

Areas of Expertise

Sleep and Creativity, 19th and 20th Century Design History, Community Engagement, Interior Design, Fundamentals of Interior Design, Interior Design Graphics, Architectural History, Design, Frank Lloyd Wright

Affiliations

Interior Design Educator's Council (IDEC) - Member

Education

The University of Texas at Austin
MID

The University of Texas at Austin
M.A. Architectural History

Baylor University
B.S. Interior Design

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.