

Elizabeth Siantz

Adjunct Lecturer at USC Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work

Los Angeles, CA, US

Elizabeth Siantz is an expert in the implementation of integrated mental health and primary care services.

Biography

ELIZABETH SIANTZ serves as an adjunct lecturer and teaches courses on research and evaluation, use of evidence-based practices in social work, and health care. Siantz is a health services researcher with expertise in the implementation of integrated mental health and primary care services and services delivered by peer mental health providers. Her methodological areas of focus include qualitative and mixed methodology and social network analysis. She has also conducted quantitatively focused studies that have included data from the California Health Interview Survey and administrative data from San Diego County. Recently she served as a project director for evaluations of integrated pilot programs in Los Angeles and San Bernardino Counties. Siantz holds a full-time position as a postdoctoral fellow in the Department of Family Medicine and Public Health at the University of California, San Diego (Division of Health Policy).

Industry Expertise

Mental Health Care, Health Care - Providers, Education/Learning, Health and Wellness, Health Care - Services

Areas of Expertise

Social Network Analysis, Peer Mental Health Providers, Social Work, Integrated Mental Health and Primary Care Services

Education

University of Southern California
Ph.D.

Columbia School of Social Work
M.S.W.

Indiana University
B.A.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.