

Emily Fisher

Professor at Loyola Marymount University

Los Angeles, CA, US

Department of Specialized Programs in Professional Psychology

Biography

Dr. Fisher is an associate professor in the School Psychology Program at Loyola Marymount University. She teaches courses on counseling and treatment of emotional and behavioral disorders. Her publications include articles and books focused on promoting positive development and mental health. Her experience working in clinical, juvenile justice, and school settings informs her work.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning, Mental Health Care

Areas of Expertise

Marginalized Youth, Multi-Tiered Systems of Support, LGBTQ Youth, Mental Health, Classroom Management and Positive Behavioral Support, Inclusive Practices, Support for Students With Emotional and Behavioral Disorders, Counseling, Solution-Focused Brief Counseling, Social Justice, Disproportionality

Affiliations

National Association of School Psychologists, Trainers of School Psychology, California Association of School Psychologists, NASP LGBTQI2-S Committee

Education

University of California Santa Barbara

Ph.D. Counseling/Clinical/School Psychology

University of California Santa Barbara

M.A Counseling Psychology

Connecticut College

B.A. Psychology

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.