

Eric Houck, Ph.D.

Associate Professor of Educational Leadership and Policy, School of Education at UNC-Chapel Hill
Chapel Hill, NC, US

Associate Professor of Educational Leadership and Policy

Description

A noted authority on education finance issues, Eric Houck's current research focuses on the mechanisms by which teachers and students are allocated across schools and districts, particularly via salary structures and student assignment policies. He is a coauthor of one of the leading school finance textbooks on the market and his research has appeared in publications such as the Journal of Education Finance, the Peabody Journal of Education, Education and Urban Society, and Leadership and Policy in Schools.

A former public school teacher, Houck was a member of UNC's inaugural class of NC Teaching Fellows.
