

Esther Green

Director, Person-Centred Perspective at Canadian Partnership Against Cancer

Toronto, ON, CA

Nursing and oncology expert, working to redefine and improve the paradigms of patient care

Biography

Esther Green is the Director, Person-Centred Perspective at the Canadian Partnership Against Cancer. She is a co-investigator on research grants in the areas of: mentorship, advance practice nursing roles, patient safety, patient engagement and patient experience. She has published many articles in peer-reviewed journals and has authored chapters in nursing textbooks.

Ms. Green is a member of several cancer societies including the Canadian Association of Nurses in Oncology (CANO) and the Canadian Association of Psychosocial Oncology (CAPO). She is a member of the Sigma Theta Tau International Society of Nurses, and has served on the Lambda Pi Chapter Board. She is a past president of the Board of Directors at both CANO and CAPO. Ms. Green is also is a past member of the Board of Directors, International Society of Nurses in Cancer Care.

Areas of Expertise

Patient-Centered Care, Patient Engagement, Oncology, Psychosocial Oncology, Advance Practice Nursing, Patient Safety, Clinical Research, Healthcare

Education

McMaster University

MSc Health Sciences and Education

University of Windsor

BSc, BA Nursing and Psychology

Accomplishments

Lifetime Achievement Award

2009

Canadian Association of Nurses in Oncology

Award of Excellence

2009

Canadian Association of Psychosocial Oncology

Award of Excellence in Nursing Leadership
2004

Ontario Hospital Association

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.