

Francois Gilbert

Licensed Insolvency Trustee (LIT) at Fontaine & Associates

Ottawa, ON, CA

Francois Gilbert is a bilingual Licensed Insolvency Trustee (LIT) at Fontaine & Associates.

Biography

Francois obtained his CPA accounting designation in 1995, his CIRP insolvency designation in 1998 and became a Licensed Insolvency Trustee (LIT) in 1999. He has been working in the field of insolvency since graduating from University of Ottawa in 1991 and has been with Fontaine & Associates since 2002. Prior to that, Francois was working in the Ottawa office of PwC.

Francois has been helping individuals solve their debt problems now for over 20 years by providing advice on credit counselling, consumer proposals and personal bankruptcies. He also has extensive experience in business restructuring.

When he is not at work, Francois spends most of his time with his wife and kids doing outdoor activities and he also volunteers with local non-for-profit organizations in the Ottawa area from time to time. He is an avid musician and plays the keyboard, mainly for his own enjoyment.
