

Fr. Tom Batsis

Professor Emeritus at Loyola Marymount

University

Los Angeles, CA, US

Educational Support Services

Biography

Father Thomas Batsis, a Licensed Psychologist (clinical), is a Professor in Residence at Loyola Marymount University's (LMU) School of Education. He also serves as Executive Director of LMU's Center for Catholic Education.

Industry Expertise

Research, Education/Learning, Public Safety, Mental Health Care

Areas of Expertise

School Safety, Youth Gangs, Psychology and Catholicism, Counseling Psychology

Event Appearances

Multicultural counselor training through experiential group activities

Association for Counselor Education and Supervision (ACES) Conference

Creating a safe learning space for the school community

National Catholic Educational Association Convention

Culturally Responsive Career Counseling

Eleventh International Counseling Conference

Education

California Graduate Institute

PhD Psychology

University of Louisville

M.Ed. School Administration

Bellarmino College

BA History

Accomplishments

Frederick Milton Thrasher Award

Received the Frederick Milton Thrasher Award from the National Gang Crime Research Center "...for outstanding contributions to scholarship, service, and innovations in Gang Research Issues."

Recognition

Received official Recognition from the Archdiocese of Los Angeles's Department of Catholic Schools for Recognition "...for dedicated service as a member of the Catholic School Board, 1990 - 1995."

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.