

Garth Holloway

Director at Sixfootfour

Sydney, NSW, AU

Leading edge speaker in business management

Biography

20 years experience; Strategic planning, Change, Risk, Productivity, Policy and Procedures and Governance. MBA - Macquarie University.

Garth is a senior business executive with deep expertise in the discipline of organisational effectiveness and business transformation founded on 20 years of experience working with blue chip companies and coaching executives and senior management teams.

He is equally conversant on the drivers of shareholder value as he is on working through the difficulties of improving operational productivity. A core strength is his capability to rapidly contextualise, separate and address complex business issues.

Undaunted by the adversities of leading change, he enjoys working with senior executives to focus the business on what matters most such as building and aligning teams, adjusting to sustained change, meeting commercial and customer service objectives and organisational learning.
