

Hyunkag Cho

Associate Professor of Social Work at Michigan State University

East Lansing, MI, US

An expert in intimate partner violence (IPV), help seeking behaviors among IPV victims, and immigrants.

Biography

Dr. Hyunkag Cho is an associate professor in the School of Social Work at Michigan State University. His research has focused on intimate partner violence (IPV), with a specific emphasis on help seeking behaviors among IPV victims, including immigrants. Included in his research topics are victims' perception of IPV, interpersonal and sociocultural factors affecting victims' help seeking, and the process of victims' selecting a source of help. Rigorous data collection from ethnic minority communities and collaboration with culturally competent scholars are emphasized through his research.

Industry Expertise

Judiciary, Mental Health Care, Women, Education/Learning

Areas of Expertise

Service Evaluation, Immigrants, Intimate Partner Violence, Help-Seeking, Health Service Use

Affiliations

Council on Social Work Education (CSWE; 2005-present)

Education

Florida State University, College of Social Work

Ph.D.

Seongkonghoe (Korea) University

MSW

Accomplishments

Margaret Nielsen Award for Diversity Achievement.

2015

School of Social Work, MSU

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.