

Jason Moyse

Lawyer and Business Consultant at Jason Moyse Professional Corporation

Toronto, ON, CA

Absolute results oriented and business savvy lawyer in the corporate, commercial and litigation context in private practice and in house.

I love the intersection of business, entrepreneurs, startups, efficiency and law. I am a Lean Six Sigma Black Belt and part of the NewLaw movement. In addition to consulting on business, strategy and project management issues -- I am thrilled to practice law in association with CognitionLLP in Toronto Canada -- not your traditional law firm. Which is good --- because I am not your traditional lawyer. My background also includes serving as a corporate manager, strategist, project leader, operations program developer and relationship owner with key vendor/partners. I love all things Apple, twitter, fitness & health and occasionally drinking from red solo cups.
