Be Yourself - Everyone Else is Taken

Woody Allen once said that 80% of success is showing up. And although this seems ridiculously simple, in terms of image it is bang on! In this global economy, your source of uniqueness and strength is YOU - who you are in your very essence. Showing up as YOU, with all you have to offer the world, entails connecting with your true self and choosing elements (colour, style, cut, fabric, accessories, hairstyle etc) that delight you and uniquely express YOU. Be all you can be - starting today!

Testimonials

Pat Miller

I wanted to let you know how much I appreciated your presentation on Tuesday. You delivered exactly what I was looking for, and for that I thank you. The women were all very pleased with the information you gave and your enthusiastic approach.

Lisa Presbury

Thank you so much for the workshop on Friday – the feedback from the team over lunch was incredibly positive! They all agreed that they would have liked more time and to have learnt even more (and that's a great outcome).

We have agreed that our next level down (Supervisors) would get a great buzz out of this session too. Thanks again Jeanette – that was exactly what I wanted for the team and the feedback was very positive.

Just wanted to say thanks again for supporting the Chicks with Sticks golf day and ultimately the Westpac Rescue Helicopter Service. Lots of positive feedback about your talk too! Hopefully you'll get some new business from it!
