

Jennifer Hunter

Senior Instructional Designer / Project Manager at Southern Utah University

Cedar City, UT, US

Specializing in online course design, faculty development, and technology, pedagogy, content knowledge (TPACK)

Biography

Dr. Jennifer Hunter is the senior instructional designer for Southern Utah University and adjuncts in online education. She assists in the development of the university's online learning strategy, including research and development, essential learning outcomes, faculty development and outreach.

Dr. Hunter's main scholarly work is in e-learning, including instructional design, development and delivery, and professional development. Her areas of interest are authentic assessment, e-learning/e-training, instructional technology, interactivity and high-quality online course delivery. Dr. Hunter is currently working towards publishing her work and is co-authoring a book in e-learning and instructional delivery.

Dr. Hunter earned a bachelor of science in business administration and a master of business administration from Southern Utah University and a Ph.D. of philosophy in education from Northcentral University of Phoenix.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning, Writing and Editing, Training and Development, Business Services

Areas of Expertise

Online Course Design, Instructional Design, Professional Development, Online Education, Elearning Strategy, Faculty Development, Technology, Pedagogy, Content Knowledge (TPACK)

Affiliations

Association for Educational Communication and Technology, Quality Matters, United Tribes Technical College

Education

Northcentral University

Ph.D. Education

Southern Utah University

M.B.A. Business

Southern Utah University
B.A. Business Administration

Accomplishments

Senator of the Year
SUUSA, 2009

Classified Staff Distinguished Service
Southern Utah University, 2009

First Place in Human Resources
DEX Competition, 2010

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.