Jessica Lowy
Assistant Dean, BBA Advising and Academic Affairs at Emory University, Goizueta Business School
ATLANTA, GA, US

Biography
Jessica has been a part of the Emory community since 2005, first working with master’s students as a Career Counselor at the Rollins School of Public Health and subsequently joining the BBA Program Office in 2010. Jessica has extensive experience advising students throughout their undergraduate experience, from prospective student to freshman through senior year, and assumed the position of Director of BBA Admissions in 2016, overseeing recruitment and admissions activities for the BBA Program. In 2019, Jessica became the Assistant Dean of Advising and Academic Affairs. In this role, she manages advising and enrollment activities and contributes to curricular initiatives for the BBA Program. Jessica was a recipient of the Dean’s Staff Advisory Council Excellence Award in Collaboration in 2018. Throughout her time at Emory, Jessica has remained committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion efforts, including serving as Chair of Emory’s President’s Commission on LGBT Concerns (later known as the President's Commission on Sexuality, Gender Diversity, and Queer Equality) and a member of the Goizueta Diversity Committee.

Education
University of Georgia
PhD

University of South Florida
MPH

Vassar College
BA

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.