

Joan M. Kern

Director and Assistant Professor at Cedar Crest College

Allentown, PA, US

Director of Field Experience and Assistant Professor in Education at Cedar Crest College

Joan M. Kern is an assistant professor in the education department at Cedar Crest College, and the Director of Field Experiences and Student Teaching.

Joan was a stay-at-home mom and then enjoyed a career in the business world before realizing that she wanted to become a teacher. She went back to school after her children were in school full-time.

After earning her bachelor's and master's degrees, Joan taught elementary school in the Lehigh Valley area in fourth and fifth grade classrooms. In 2006, she became an instructor at Cedar Crest College.

Joan joined the Cedar Crest faculty in order to share her experience as an educator with future teachers. She enjoys watching students reach their goals, as well as gaining insights from her students' field experiences.

Education/Learning, Research, Training and Development

Early Childhood Education , Curriculum Design & Development, Educational Leadership, E-Learning

National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) , Pennsylvania Association of College and Teacher Educators (PAC-TE)

Women's Leadership in Higher Education

International :Leadership Association Women's Leadership Conference

Women's Leadership in Higher Education

Tobias Leadership Conference

Conflict Resolution in Education

One Voice International

Common Core Standards

Pennsylvania Association of Colleges & Teacher Educators (PAC-TE)

Conflict Resolution in Education

American Institute of Higher Education

Co-Teaching

One Voice International

Alvernia University
Ph. D. Educational Leadership

Kutztown University of Pennsylvania
M. Ed. Education

Kutztown University of Pennsylvania
B.S. Early Childhood Elementary Education

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.