How Life Sciences Firms Use the Web to Manage Corporate Transactions

When entering into various corporate agreements, Life Sciences firms are faced with the daunting task of sharing hundreds if not thousands of confidential documents both efficiently and securely. This talk will address the importance of document security, including:

- Securing documents in a proven, trusted environment
- Sharing files for review quickly and easily
- Managing multiple business needs with one tool
- Procuring a cost effective firm wide solution

How Can Marketing Help Lead the Business?

How does a CEO decide which marketing programs to fund or cut? How does that change as your company grows? Joel Lessem explains how their marketing team has taken on new sales responsibilities and increased their influence on Firmex's ability to find and close new business. Joel will also outline why sometimes a risk-taking generalist is exactly what your company needs in a software marketer, and he shares some metrics about their success with inbound Google search.
