

John M. Hassell

Professor of Accounting at Indiana University, Kelley School of Business

Indianapolis, IN, US

Professor Hassell's primary area of research deals with the informativeness of voluntary management disclosures.

Biography

John M. Hassell is the OneAmerica Chair and Professor of Accounting at the Kelley School of Business Indianapolis. After receiving his Ph.D. degree from Indiana University, he joined the faculty at Florida State University, and later moved to The University of Texas at Arlington. He joined the Kelley School of Business Indianapolis faculty in 1996. His primary area of research deals with the informativeness of voluntary management disclosures. Other research areas are education research and auditor decision making. He has published extensively in journals such as The Accounting Review; Journal of Accounting Research; Accounting, Organizations & Society; and Contemporary Accounting Research. He has received several teaching awards and received the 2005 Kelley School of Business Service Award.

Industry Expertise

Research, Accounting, Education/Learning

Areas of Expertise

Financial Accounting, Accounting Education

Secondary Titles

OneAmerica Chair

Education

Indiana University
PhD

Indiana University
MBA

Oklahoma State University
MS

Baylor University
BBA

Accomplishments

Indiana CPA Society Educator of the Year
2008

Kelley School of Business Service Award
2005

University of Texas at Arlington College of Business Administration Distinguished Service Award
1995-1996

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.