Joseph- I want to thank you and recommend you on several levels. As CEO of TribeHR you are pushing the boundaries of what HR CAN be with your social HR platform- as a coach/panelist of our inaugural Impact99.ca conference you inspired the audience with your approach to both leading a company and designing social HR software- and lastly as one of our major sponsors of the event you stepped up first supporting not only our conference but the IDEA of what our conference was about. Thank you on so many levels and really look forward to continuing to figure out ways to collaborate.
