

Julia Christensen Hughes

Dean at Centre for Business and Social Entrepreneurship

Guelph, ON, CA

Dean of the College of Business and Economics providing strategic leadership at the University of Guelph.

Julia is an accomplished management scholar who is committed to helping improve the effectiveness of organizations through a strategic approach to human resources management. She is also an advocate for change within higher education and has helped facilitate many national, provincial and local events focused on improving the quality of teaching and learning. Her work on academic integrity has garnered national and international attention. Julia is regularly sought as a keynote speaker and has received a number of awards.

She was appointed Dean of the College of Business and Economics at the University of Guelph in May of 2009. Previously, she was the Chair of the Department of Business since June 2007.

Keynote, Panelist, Host/MC

Education/Learning, Writing and Editing, Public Relations and Communications, Program Development, Human Resources, Corporate Leadership, Training and Development

Leadership Development, Higher Education Leadership, Strategic Human Resource Management, Transformational Learning, Improving the Quality of Teaching & Learning, Academic Integrity

York University - Schulich School of Business

PhD Organizational Behavior Studies

York University - Schulich School of Business

MBA Organizational Behavior Studies

University of Guelph

BCom Hotel/Motel Administration/Management

Ontario Hospitality Institute Honours Julia Christensen-Hughes

OHI Gold Awards recognize those top hospitality industry achievers whose commitment to excellence enhances the image of Ontario among thousands of diners, travellers and vacationers each year. OHI serves as an industry advocate on matters such as professional culinary, hospitality and tourism education, training and apprenticeship.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.