Engagement Tools Aren't People: Authentic Relationships Still Matter

Building lasting relationships with existing customers and members drives business success. Making that happen is called “Engagement Marketing.” The session will feature models of how other small businesses, nonprofits, associations, and organizations combine email marketing and social media marketing to build authentic connections, monitor feedback, share interesting content and drive toward business success.

Embrace Facebook Changes - They're Actually Pretty Great!

This session will include strategies and practices for working Facebook into your marketing efforts. We will look at examples of how others are using Facebook to grow their businesses and organizations. We will talk about how to manage your messages and posts for maximum impact, what works and what doesn't. Participants will gain insight into the best way to manage a social campaign on Facebook, offering discounts, downloads and other content to generate real engagement with fans & customers.

Event Marketing Tactics for Higher Attendance, Increased Engagement and Greater Reach

This session provides guidance and insight into what works and what doesn't when you are trying to host successful events. Whether your events are large or small, you can follow some simple steps that help to drive attendance up, increase engagement of participants and improve the overall experience as an event planner. We will look at some successful event management plans and ways to incorporate social media tools to increase awareness and revenue as well.

Grow Your Business By Hosting Events (Without Headaches)

Events are an integral part of how you market your small business or organization. From sales meetings to fundraisers and online training seminars, events help you attract new customers and members. Events deepen existing relationships with customers and members, generating more revenue and long-term participation. In this seminar you'll learn how online event marketing tools offer everything you need to set up online registration and promote your events easily, affordably and professionally.

Director of Education – Constant Contact

Constant Contact helps small businesses, associations, and nonprofits connect with their customers, clients, and members. Launched in 1998, Constant Contact champions the needs of small organizations and provides them with an easy and affordable way to build successful, lasting customer relationships. Today, more than 500,000 customers from all types of small businesses and organizations use Constant Contact for Email Marketing, Event Marketing, Online Surveys, and Social Media Marketing.

Vice Chair, Membership, Outreach & Communications – Texas Association of Nonprofit Organizations

The Texas Association of Nonprofit Organizations (TANO) is the statewide association reflecting and promoting Texas' growing nonprofit community in all its diversity. Envisioning a Texas Nonprofit Sector that works to be among the healthiest and most vibrant in the nation, TANO's focus is every nonprofit entity within our state no matter its size or budget, urban or rural location. Our mission is to connect, strengthen and support the nonprofit community for the public good of Texas.

Marketing Communications Committee – Association of Fundraising Professionals

Julie is a member of the Marketing Communications Committee for the Association of Fundraising Professionals, which represents more than 30,000 members in 230 chapters throughout the world, working to advance philanthropy through advocacy, research, education and certification programs. The association fosters development and growth of fundraising professionals and promotes high ethical standards in the fundraising profession.

Recipient – 2011 Small Business Influencer Award

In 2011, the Small Business Influencer Awards recognized the work of Julie with an Honorable Mention. The Small Business Influencer Awards honor companies, organizations, apps and people who have made a significant impact on the North American small business market.

Creator of the Destination Business System for CVBs

While with the Dallas CVB, Julie was responsible for a complete overhaul of the city's web presence. In the process, she designed a cloud-based on-demand marketing system that managed all website content, convention sales materials and data, destination marketing materials and managed email marketing, online survey and event registration. From there, Niehoff and partners worked with a local programming firm to install the system in more than a dozen Tier 1 destinations around the globe.

Julie is a clear speaking, to the point, enthusiastic, genuine and compelling presenter. Her ability to communicate her subject to people who may not know it's value, or fear social media, is nothing short of amazing. Her contagious spirit grabs the audience and relaxes the fears and leaves one fully engaged. To listen to and watch her is to be in the presence of a social media wizard. She makes it all seem effortless, even as she integrates her considerable knowledge of the nonprofit sector and nonprofit professionals' needs and interests with the seemingly magical tools she describes. To be in Julie's audience is to be caught up in the sense of possibilities; which she expertly helps one to transform into reality. The real deal!

I was taken aback the first time I heard Julie Niehoff speak. I had been in PR and marketing for over 10 years at the time, and it was the best presentation I had ever heard. I had only just begun my own public speaking career, but I knew immediately that I had a lot to learn and I would be lucky to learn it from Julie. I have since had the great fortune to call Julie and friend and mentor, but I am still in awe of her captivating authenticity and the ease with which she communicates the most complicated and often misunderstood aspects of small business and nonprofit marketing.

Kay Eynatten

“I have heard some of the best public speakers around, from politicians to motivational speakers to corporate leaders, and I have never heard anyone who has captured an audience as completely and effortlessly as Julie. She makes her points clear, she does it with humor and motivation, and she makes the time absolutely fly. If you’re looking for someone to stir a crowd, challenge their minds yet provide paths to the answers and get their creativity flowing, Julie can fill the bill better than anyone I know.”

Annissa Starnes, IOM

“Julie is an entertaining public speaker that has the ability to share educational content while keeping every audience member engaged. She is an excellent content creator and is an expert on all things online marketing for businesses of all sizes.”
