Experienced college administrator with expertise in managing web-based education programs.

Description

JUNE WILEY is a veteran college administrator with experience managing web-based education programs. She started in social work as a family support center counselor at Luke Air Force Base, but has spent the majority of her career in higher education. Wiley began her teaching career in 1990 at Ottawa University's Phoenix campus, serving as a faculty member and administrator for 10 years. She was later promoted to campus dean of instruction and responsible for overall academic leadership. Her objectives included incorporating current and emerging web-based technology to support teaching and learning.

Wiley also served as vice president of academic affairs at a small, private college in California, and most recently, as vice president of academic affairs for an online college for working adults.
