

Justin D. Hilliard

M.D./Assistant Professor at University of Florida

Gainesville, FL, US

Dr. Justin Hilliard performs deep brain stimulation surgery for treatment of medically refractory movement disorders.

Biography

Dr. Justin D. Hilliard is an assistant professor of neurosurgery in the Lillian S. Wells Department of Neurosurgery, College of Medicine, at the University of Florida. His primary focus is performing deep brain stimulation surgery for the treatment of medically refractory movement disorders such as Parkinson's disease, Essential tremor and dystonia. He has extensive experience and a particular interest in the treatment of: brain tumors, spinal cord tumors, cranial trauma and spine trauma. He is regarded as an advocate of neurosurgical education and is involved in the Congress of Neurological Surgeons Education Committee, where he currently serves as chair of the webinar committee.

Areas of Expertise

Spine Surgery, Deep Brain Stimulation, Brain Tumors, Movement Disorders

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.