

Karen Landolt

Lecturer, Department of Business, Government and Society at The University of Texas at Austin, McCombs School of Business

Austin, TX, US

Focusing on the ethical and social responsibilities in business through service learning.

Description

Karen Landolt is a lecturer in the Department of Business, Government and Society at the McCombs School of Business, The University of Texas at Austin. She teaches undergraduate business students in business law, entrepreneurship, and ethics.

Industry Expertise

Business Services, Non-Profit/Charitable, Program Development, Training and Development

Topics

Business Law, Business Ethics, Entrepreneurship, Career Development, Leadership Program Development , Entrepreneurial Consulting

Affiliations

Central Texas Liberal Arts Career Council : Member, StartOut Austin : Committee Member, National Association of Colleges and Employers (NACE): Member

Past Talks

Oh Behave! Behavioral Interviews: What kinds of questions are asked and how do you answer them?

Texas Library Association Annual Conference

Effective Job Search Strategies

SXSW EDU Conference Presenter

Ethics and Technology: Invited Lecture

Denius-Sams Gaming Academy

Team building with Gallup StrengthsFinder

SXSW EDU staff retreat

Being "Out" on the Job Search and at Work

Invited Address

Education

Northeastern University School of Law
J.D. Law

The University of Texas at Austin
B.A. Government

Accomplishments

Lavender Spirit Award

Awarded by the Lavender Graduation. Was also the featured speaker of the ceremony.

Academic Service Learning Commendation

Awarded by the University of Texas at Austin.

Testimonials

David Wenger

I have had the pleasure of working with Karen on several occasions. She is compassionate about teaching and encourages students to focus on their social responsibilities as business professionals. She has a broad range of experience and is very responsive to media inquiries.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.