Put SPARK into your life and business!

Biography

Karen Low is an Executive Coach, Workshop Facilitator, Mentor and Speaker, specialising in the business and corporate arenas, change management, process improvement and development, getting organised, minimising clutter, distractions and time wasters, and achieving work/life balance. Karen is passionate about successfully transforming lives (with integrity) for a positive, sustainable difference and empowering people to achieve their full potential.

Karen inspires, motivates, supports and empowers individuals and teams to create successful thinking and results, take focussed action for positive outcomes, improve communication, develop better relationships and increase confidence, self-esteem and general well-being.

During her career, Karen has experienced success in the Telecommunications, FMCG, Manufacturing and Information Management industries. In addition, Karen has worked on government funded programs to support people to start their own business, developing business, marketing and operational plans and providing business mentoring to implement the Business Plan and Action Plan. Karen brings with her more than two decades of corporate experience, is on a journey of continual personal development, discovery and learning, and enjoys the gift of giving and sharing, so that others may benefit, prosper, enrich their lives and achieve their full potential.

Since completing a Bachelor of Economics Degree, Karen has completed intensive coach training and also completed studies as a Lifeline Telephone Counsellor, Certified Practitioner in Neuro Linguistic Programming & Time Line Therapy, Certificate IV in Small Business Management and Certificate IV in Assessment and Workplace Training. Karen is a member of the International Coach Federation (ICF), Toastmasters and a range of business and networking organisations.

Karen actively contributes back into the community as a Committee Member for Kids in Community (www.kic.com.au), a not-for-profit organisation that supports youth and raises awareness of the positive role young people play and the meaningful ways that youth participate in our local communities. Karen also supports Buy1GIVE1Free™ (www.b1g1.com) a global social enterprise transforming our world, every second, every day and in every way by changing the way business, charity and the general public work together.

Karen believes in the greatest resource there is, YOU!
