Karen –

I was getting ready to send you a thank-you note for your help with our recent Convention, but realized I didn't have a mailing address on file for you. So I have attached it here – again, just want to reiterate how positive the feedback was for your presentations. Truly a highlight of the meeting, and we look forward to being able to provide further value to our members through Constant Contact's special discount program.

Thanks for all your help!

Becky

"Karen Rice is an intelligent person, with a very positive attitude. I have had the opportunity to work with Karen as a sponsor, partner, and speaker for a number of business technology events throughout the North State such as Redding, Chico, Marysville, and Anderson to name a few. Karen is an inspiration because she has such passion each time she speaks on online marketing. She receives glowing reviews at each event, and just having her on the agenda of speakers' increases our turnouts at these business technology events. Karen is very responsive, and has a genuine desire to assist others. I highly recommend working and connecting with Karen Rice to speak on online marketing."
