

Kerwin Swint, Ph.D.

Chair of the Department of Political Science and International Affairs and Professor of Political Science at Kennesaw State University

Kennesaw, GA, US

Kerwin Swint is an author, speaker and professor of political science at Kennesaw State University.

Biography

Kerwin Swint is an author, speaker and professor of political science at Kennesaw State University.

Specializing in campaigns and elections, mass media, and political history, he or his work has appeared in a number of national and international media outlets, including CNN, FOX News, the BBC, the ABC program The View, The Wall Street Journal, The Los Angeles Times, NPR, The Toronto Star, The Daily Mail (UK), National Journal, The Chronicle of Higher Education, and numerous other media.

He is the author of four books, including the recently released "The King Whisperers: Power Behind the Throne from Rasputin to Rove." He was the recipient of the College of Humanities and Social Sciences Distinguished Professor Award in 2011. Swint is a native Georgian, a graduate of UGA, and has been a tenure-track faculty member at Kennesaw State since 1996. He is a former political campaign consultant and a current board member of Common Cause Georgia.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning, Political Organization, Research, Writing and Editing, Public Policy

Areas of Expertise

Higher Education, Politics, Teaching, Public Speaking, Community Outreach, Mass Media, Mass Media and Politics, Political History, Campaigns and Elections

Education

Georgia State University

Ph.D. Political Science and Government

The University of Georgia

M.A. Social Science Education

The University of Georgia

B.A. Political Science

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.