

Kevin Grubb

Executive Director, Career Center; Assistant Vice Provost, Professional Development at Villanova University

Villanova, PA, US

Nationally recognized expert on career services, professional development and the impact of new technology on the job search.

Biography

Kevin Grubb is a nationally recognized expert in career services in higher education with expertise in the impact of new technology and social media on job searching and recruiting. He currently leads the Career Center at Villanova University where he is the office's Executive Director. Grubb also serves as Assistant Vice Provost for Professional Development at the University, overseeing career education and relationships with recruiting employers across the University.

Grubb is a sought-after speaker at conferences, events and in media—sharing his expertise on career services, technology and innovation, professional development and the impact of social media on job searching. He teaches courses at Villanova on professional development and also provides leadership for other instructors on class content and delivery.

Areas of Expertise

Career services, Professional Development, Impact of Social Media on Job Searching, Career Counseling, Career Development, Job Search, College Recruiting, Career Outcomes, Internships, Graduate School

Education

Saint Joseph's University

BS Psychology

New York University

MA Higher Education Administration

Select Accomplishments

National Association of Colleges & Employers (NACE) "Rising Star"

Named a "Rising Star" by the National Association of Colleges & Employers (NACE) in 2015

American College Personnel Association (ACPA) "Rising Star"

Recognized as a "Rising Star" by the American College Personnel Association (ACPA) in 2014.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.