

Larry Jacobson

Vice President Sales and Marketing at

San Francisco Bay Area, CA, US

Motivational Speaker, Author, Circumnavigator,
Adventurer

Biography

Sales and marketing are my business skills. Living an Unstoppable Life is how I used those same skills to complete a six-year circumnavigation. I love speaking and combining my business and adventure skills. For example, in the Keys to Navigating Sales, I share stories from sailing around the world and the skills needed to complete that huge adventure. Dreaming, setting goals, taking risks, making decisions, facing fears, staying focused, persevering, giving, maintaining a positive attitude, and learning to live with love, laughter, and passion are all subjects of my motivational speaking path. As a co-founder of World Class Incentives, and president of Creative Incentive Group, I am an expert in the travel industry, high-tech distribution, marketing of products, motivation to increase sales of products, consumer loyalty, and sales skills in consultative, long closing time sales. Author of the award-winning best selling book, The Boy Behind the Gate: how his dream of sailing around the world became a six-year odyssey of adventure, discovery, love, and fear. <http://larryjacobson.com>

Angie Smith

I had the pleasure to see Larry present online at TEDx. Afterwards we were so excited to meet him in person to see what he could do to spread his message to our clients and staff. I was incredibly interested in his message, but most of all, after meeting him, his energy and passion were absolutely contagious. We have had the pleasure of Larry leading a Webinar for all of our clients and staff, and we loved his message so much we invited him back to speak at our annual company off-site in Palm Springs. His message was inspiring and was a wonderful way to kick off our annual meeting that was all around igniting the passion again. Thank you Larry for all you have done, and for what you continue to do to spread your passion to others.
