

Lewis Jaffe

Entrepreneurship Lecturer, College of Business Administration at Loyola Marymount University

Los Angeles, CA, US

Part-Time Faculty

Biography

Lew Jaffe has guest lectured at numerous major Universities, speaking at Private Equity/Venture Capital and various industry conferences and provide some consulting to companies in distress that require a change in strategy, operational improvement and financial restructuring. He is a proven operating executive with significant turnaround and growth experience, successful with generating profits and creating shareholder value in both public and private companies by aligning strategies with customer and market demands, bringing existing products to new markets and refining offerings to existing markets. He is experienced in creating sales and margin growth organically and through M&A activities, and exploiting synergies. Currently, Lew sits on the Board of Directors of Benihana Corporation, Bond Laboratories and York Telecom.

Industry Expertise

Telecommunications, Internet, Hospitality, Restaurant/Food Service, Media - Broadcast

Areas of Expertise

Leadership Entrepreneurship Startups, Business Development, Strategy, Strategic Planning, Brand Building, Strategic Marketing, Change Leadership, Mergers & Acquisitinos

Affiliations

YPO/WPO, American College of Public Directors

Education

Stanford University

Executive Program Smaller Companies Entrepreneurship

La Salle University

BS Physics & Psychology

The American College of Corporate Directors

Masters Certification Public Company Director Board Governance

Accomplishments

Career Accomplishments

Raised over $1 Billion in debt and equity.
Successfully sold three public companies.

Other

Lew can toss eight out of ten shrimp into a chef's hat at Benihana.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.