

Lori Campbell

Adjunct Lectuer at USC Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work

Los Angeles, CA, US

Lori Campbell has worked primarily as a clinical social worker for community mental health agencies.

Biography

LORI CAMPBELL is part of the social work adjunct faculty at USC. Since 2000, she has worked primarily as a clinical social worker for community mental health agencies.

Previously, she served as a clinical supervisor, clinical program manager and supervisor for the Specialized Foster Care Program in the Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health, which was co-located inside the Department of Children and Family Services. She also worked as a child custody evaluator for LA Superior Court and as a program manager on a children's health study at the USC Keck School of Medicine.

Campbell received her master's degree in social work from USC. She is currently working toward her PhD in social policy at an accredited online university.

Industry Expertise

Mental Health Care, Education/Learning, Health and Wellness

Areas of Expertise

Mental Health Counseling, Family Therapy, Crisis Intervention

Education

University of Southern California

M.S.W. Social Work

San Diego State University

B.A. Sociology

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.