

Manuka Henare, PhD

Public Trustee at Fielding Graduate University

Auckland, , NZ

Educator with expertise in indigenous studies and Maori business development.

Description

Mā•nuka joined the University of Auckland Business School in 1996. He is Associate Professor in Mā•ori Business Development in the Department of Management and International Business and recently completed (December 2014) a twelve-year term as Associate Dean (Mā•ori and Pacific Development). Mā•nuka is also the foundation Director of the Mira Szã;szy Research Centre for Mā•ori and Pacific Economic Development and leads a number of multidisciplinary research project teams. He is a board member of the University Of Auckland Centre Of Development Studies, and the Centre for Pacific Studies. Until 2013, he was the Academic Coordinator of Te Tohu Huangā Mā•ori Graduate Program in Business Development within the Graduate School of Management. He teaches Mā•ori business and economic history, strategy, and management of tribal enterprises. Mā•nuka has just completed a seven-year term as government appointee to the Council of Te Wā•nanga o Aotearoa, NZ's largest tertiary institution, and just completed a five year term as Council member of the Manukau Institute of Technology (May 2015). In 2014, he was appointed a member of the Royal Society of New Zealand Humanities and Social Science Advisory Panel. He is a Visiting Fellow of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge University, UK, and currently, on research and study leave in Cambridge. He has advised government departments, local authorities, and other institutions on ambicultural or bicultural governance and management policies and also served on government advisory committees on development assistance, peace and disarmament, archives, history, social policy, environmental risk management and a number of other ministerial appointments. He was previously a lecturer in Mā•ori studies at Victoria University of Wellington, where he taught courses on the Te Tiriti o Waitangi/Treaty of Waitangi, Mā•ori culture, and society and tribal histories.

Prior to his university career (his third career), he was CEO of two national non-government organizations involved in international development, justice, and peace, and has traveled extensively throughout Asia, the Pacific and Southern Africa.

Industry Expertise

Government Administration, Education/Learning, International Trade and Development

Topics

Human Rights, Business Development, Change Management & Strategic Planning, Corporate Social Responsibility, Higher Education, Maori Development, Economics

Affiliations

Education

Victoria University of Wellington
Bachelor of Arts Anthropology

Accomplishments

Visiting Fellowship, Corpus Christi College, Cambridge University, Cambridge, UK
Research Fellowship and residency at Corpus Christi, Leckhampton Post Graduate Centre, Cambridge in 1999-2000, 2015.

Life Time Member, New Zealand Pacific Business Council

New Zealand Pacific Business Council

2014

For services and promotion of New Zealand business in the Pacific Islands

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.