Margie kicked off our Women's Leadership Campaign with a killer keynote address. She were fabulous! Her message really hit home, and set an excellent foundation for the rest of our leadership campaign. We were engaged by her dynamic delivery, connected with her personal stories, and were inspired by the questions she challenged us to ask ourselves. She shared a solid methodology, and great reasons to use it; she tied it all to our values, and made the moving ahead the safe choice, not the scary one. We cannot recommend her highly enough.

If you want a program that gets rave reviews then hire Margie! Our audience truly enjoyed her presentation and found her to be very engaging. I enjoyed working with Margie immensely. She had a well-polished presentation and needed very little guidance the day-of the event-an event planner's dreams come.
