

Mark Hall, J.D.

Professor of Law at Wake Forest University

Winston-Salem, NC, US

Hall is an expert on the Affordable Care Act, Medicaid reform, and health care policy. He can also help you understand your medical bills.

Biography

As a Nonresident Senior Fellow with the Brookings Institution's Center of Health Policy, Mark Hall is a leading expert in health care law, public policy, and bioethics. As the director of the Health Law and Policy program at Wake Forest School of Law, Hall can discuss health care reform, access to care by the uninsured, insurance regulations, and even surprises in your medical bills. With numerous scholarly contributions in the form of books, articles, casebooks, and major studies, Hall has been named the No. 2 most-cited professor in the area of health law, according to Brian Leiter's 2018 Scholarly Impact Ranking.

He regularly consults with government officials, foundations, and think tanks about health care public policy issues. Hall is faculty researcher with Wake Forest Medical School as well as a professor with the University's MBA program and graduate program in Bioethics.

Areas of Expertise

Health Law, Bioethics, Health Care Law, Public Policy, Insurance Law and Regulations, Health Care Access, Affordable Care Act, ACA, American Health Care Act, ACHA, Medicaid Expansion, Medicaid, Medical Bills, Medical Billing, Health Insurance, Public Health

Affiliations

American Law Institute, Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality, American Society of Law, AcademyHealth, American Health Lawyers Association, Brookings Institution, Institute of Medicine, Oxford Journal of Law and the Biosciences

Event Appearances

Private Health Insurance Exchanges

Health Insurance Exchange Summit

Implementation of the ACA

National Health Policy Conference

Implementation of Health Insurance Exchanges

American Society of Law, Medicine & Ethics Annual Meeting

The History and Purpose of Health Insurance Exchanges

Yale Health Law Society Conference

Employer--sponsored Health Insurance under the Affordable Care Act
American Associations of Law Schools Annual Meeting

Education

University of Chicago
J.D. Law

Middle Tennessee State University
B.A. Philosophy and English

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.